Active Shooter Training for Long Term Care Facilities

Please join us for a free virtual training session led by Sgt. Trevor McKim with the San Luis Obispo County Sheriff's Office

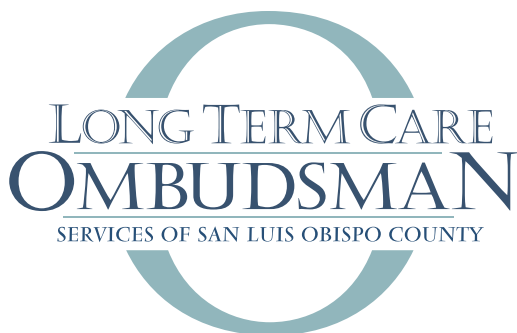

Since June 2020, there have been three active shooter incidents in San Luis Obispo County. All three have occurred near long term care facilities. This training will help care facility staff prepare for and respond to active shooter incidents.

No cost to attend

No CEUs are available for this event

The webinar is limited to 200 attendees. The webinar will be recorded.
